

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

JULY 12, 1848.

Submitted, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. BALDWIN made the following

REPORT:

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 164.]

The Committee of Claims, to whom was referred the bill from the House of Representatives, entitled "An act for the relief of Elisha T. Richards," having had the same under consideration, report:

That they concur generally in the view taken of the facts, as sustained by the evidence in this case, of the committee of the House of Representatives who reported said bill, but are of opinion that the mode of relief indicated by the amendment hereby proposed is more appropriate.

They therefore recommend the passage of the bill with the accompanying amendment.

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

July 12, 1848

Read, and ordered to be printed

Mr. Harlow made the following

REPORT

[To accompany bill H. R. No. 101]

The Committee of Finance, to whom was referred the bill for the relief of James V. Harlow, do hereby report, that the same is ready for consideration.

That they cannot generally in the view taken of the facts, as stated in the evidence in this case, of the committee of the House of Representatives who reported said bill, but in their opinion that the mode of relief indicated by the said committee is the most proper and appropriate.

They therefore recommend the passage of the bill with the amendments thereto.